

Director New York State Superintendent Development Program

SUNY Oswego and Greater Southern Tier BOCES are seeking a Director for the New York State Superintendent Development Program (NYSSDP) Director. The SDP Director is a part time position, responsible for leading and organizing core program elements of a year-round leadership program for those interested in becoming a Superintendent of Schools. The Director coordinates sessions, conducts interviews, provides feedback and supports regional teams of faculty mentors. The Director recruits eligible participants, recruits, trains, and hires Superintendent Faculty Mentors, reviews and updates curriculum and program manual. The Director works within an established budget, regularly submits reports, coordinates assessments and communicates frequently. Applicants must have a Bachelor's degree with at least 60 Graduate credits in education or educational leadership, a minimum of 10 years full time experience as an educational leader, experience as a superintendent, and expertise advocating for and leading implementation of current NYS / national education reforms in educational institutions. Training targeted for May, full duties commence in the fall of 2018. Full Description and link to application may be found at www.oswego.edu/vacancies

